

As of January 2017 ANC3F will hold its meeting on the UDC campus in the Small Auditorium (Room A03) on the ground floor of Building 44.

Walking

From Connecticut Ave walk up the large staircase in front of the new student center, follow the path between Buildings 39 and 38, then enter Building 44 through the first set of glass doors facing Building 42 and the Plaza. Room A03 is to right just after you walk through the doors.

From Van Ness St walk between building 39 and 44 (also the entrance to the parking garage). Continue to the Plaza and make a left around building 44. (Note: It's easier to stay outside of building 44 until you get around it for a more direct route, but if the weather is bad you can enter any part of the building and navigate around to the Plaza side). Enter Building 44 through the first set of glass doors facing Building 42 and the Plaza. Room A03 is to right just after you walk through the doors.
